ABOUT OUR FIRM

U.S. Financial Group is a forensic accounting and consulting firm with a specific focus on loss accounting and damage measurement. The primary emphasis of our practice is on providing professional accounting services to the Insurance Industry and also providing services in the related area of Litigation Support. Our professionals possess the experience and expertise required to objectively quantify financial damages in a variety of claims or litigation situations.

Insurance Claims Practice

Our experience and expertise in supporting the Insurance Industry includes analysis of damages arising from business interruption, property damage/inventory losses, product recall, lost earnings and many others. These claims may arise in both first party and third party liability environments. A sample of our industry experience involving damage measurement includes large and small manufacturing concerns, healthcare, hospitality, agriculture, retail and service sectors.

Litigation Support Practice

Our involvement in investigating and defending financial damage measurements also extends to the litigation arena. U.S. Financial Group can assist the legal team with expert witness testimony, pre-trial negotiations and/or alternate dispute resolution options. A logical, fair and defensible loss measurement presented by a forensic accountant can often be a key to success in the courtroom.
